Note for:

The Training Officer in the Office of Personnel forwarded the attached letter to TSB for action. I don't think that we are the proper channel to recommend an officer to sit on a Foreign Service Review Board.

STAT

The last time the Agency participated in this process was in July 1985. At the time  was the rep. This was shortly after he was reassigned to the DDA's office.

STAT

I suggest that you send it to the DDA or DDO to see if they have someone to sit on the SFS-II Board for three weeks commencing on 11 July.

The State Dept. would very much like to have CIA represented again.

I called about the 1 March deadline, and it has been extended for CIA until 31 March. The contact in the Office of Performance Evaluation at State is Cheryl Hodge at 647-3412.

STAT

4/11- Spoke with Cheryl Hodge this date to advise we want to consider candidates but hadn't nailed down anyone as of yet. She stated okay but would like someone if possible since CIA hasn't participated in this activity in last few yrs.

Mr. Hugh E. Price
Director of Personnel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Hugh:

I would appreciate your nomination of officers from your agency to serve on one of our 1988 Foreign Service Selection Boards. We will need an officer at the SES/SFS level for Board SFS-II which will review officers at the FE-MC (Minister Counselor) level for promotion to FE-CM (Career Minister). We ask that an alternate also be named should the primary designee be unable to serve.

The Board is scheduled to convene Monday, July 11, and is expected to be in session for three weeks. In making your selections, please keep in mind the obligation of the Department of State to choose representatives with diverse professional, ethnic and racial backgrounds.

A brief resume highlighting experience in foreign affairs should be provided for each of the nominees. In addition, please indicate the level of security clearance each officer holds and whether he or she has served previously on a State Department Foreign Service Selection Board.

I would appreciate receiving your nominations by March 1, if possible.

We believe that your agency's participation in our Selection Board process will be of mutual benefit and hope that you will accept our invitation to join in this important task.

Sincerely,

George S. Vest
